Heard Harmony: A musical circle of support and bonding

Heard Harmony is a music experience for families with children under the age of 3 focused on caregiver bonding, child development and caregiver support. Through varied live music making experiences, children and parents will have positive bonding experiences, gain confidence, and improve positive interactions in a stress free environment. As part of this program, caregivers will connect with other families at weekly classes and share experiences in a safe and fun setting.

WHEN: Sessions start in January, April, July and September
